G.O. Ms. No. 3971

ated the 27th October 1948.

Read the following:-

G.O. S/47-1/48, Public dated the 8th January 1948.

From the Inspector-General of Police, No. Rc. 1558/W/48 dated the 31st August 1948 and Rc. No. 1837/W/48, dated the 13th October 1948.

ORDER:

According to paragraph 1(3) of G.O. S/47-1/48, Public, dated the 8th January 1948, a person seeking enlistment as a Home Guard should be able to read and write a language. The Inspector-General of Police has brought to the notice of the Government that a number of ex-servicemen who are willing to join the organization cannot be enlisted as they do not possess the prescribed literacy qualification although they are otherwise quite suitable, and has accordingly recommended that ex-servicemen may be exempted from possessing the qualification. The Government accept the recommendation and direct that the District Superintendent of Police of the District concerned and the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Law and Order in the Madras City, may, in special cases, exempt from possessing the literacy qualification ex-servicemen who have some local influence and whose bonafides are not open
